Office of the Director

Submitted entries are expected to reflect modern anti-corruption governmental mechanisms at all levels and aspects of social life, replicating the role and significance of international cooperation in this area. The awarding ceremony for the winners in the two categories will be on 09 December 2020, the International Anti-Corruption Day.

The contest started in 2017, with the invited participants initially coming from the youth of the Russian Federation. Subsequent years showed an increase in invites from international youth participants, the last being in 2019 where over 22 thousand posters and videos were submitted from international participants.

CLEAR STATEMENT OF REQUEST AND RECOMMENDED ACTION

The information on the international youth anti-corruption advertising contest is requested to be disseminated to concerned parties, especially the learners of different grade levels from all the Regions, within the age requirement set by the organizer.
